to the development of bajra lassi and high protein biscuits products. Intervention of the micronutrient and protein deficiency and protein malnutrition can be alleviated through application for food purposes. Increasing micronutrient anti-nutrients, polyphenolic and pigmentation limits their unique amino-acid profile and dietary fiber, but presence of composition. Pearl millet is major millet crop grown in rain fed products i.e. whey. Whey is a major dairy by-product and it utilized pearl millets and milk solids specially the dairy by-

